

This is the first book devoted entirely to Lawrences nonfictional writings. It focuses on a selection of representative texts, each of which is placed in an appropriate literary or historical context. These include the Study of Thomas Hardy, the two books about the Unconscious, the travel-writing - primarily Twilight in Italy and Sea and Sardinia - the largely autobiographical Introduction to Memoirs of the Foreign Legion by M. M and the late thoughts in verse called Pansies. David Ellis and Howard Mills challenge the automatic relegation to secondary status suffered by these works in the past and suggest a radical reassessment of Lawrences literary profile of how his writings relate to one another and of where his greatest power and originality lie.
