

Murder at Maypole Manor: A Posie Parker Mystery (The Posie Parker Mystery Series Book 3)

Lies, Spies, Film Stars and Murder
New Years Eve, 1921
Posie has been asked to accompany Inspector Richard Lovelace of Scotland Yard on an undercover mission. Their destination is a glittering New Years Eve party at Maypole Manor, the cliff-top home of Lord Robin Glaysayer. Among the twelve guests are a famous film star, an artist, an Italian nobleman, a government spy and a clairvoyant. With a blizzard raging outside, when a killer strikes, the Inspector and Posie's skills are tested to breaking point as they try to find the murderer before he attacks again. But danger lurks at every corner: just who exactly is the mysterious thirteenth house guest? Why is Posie being singled out for special attention? And will she ever see Alaric Boynton-Dale ever again? This is a classic Golden Age of Crime murder mystery which will appeal to fans of Agatha Christie and Downton Abbey. Murder at Maypole Manor is the third book in the delightfully classic Posie Parker Mystery Series, although the novel can be enjoyed as a stand-alone story in its own right.
