

Rugby Stories

This collection contains FitzSimons best rugby writings of the past seven years - drawn from the Sydney Morning Herald, the International Herald Tribune, The Sunday Times, The Independent and Londons Daily Telegraph. A rarity in the rugby writing ranks for actually having played the game at Test level himself, FitzSimons tackles a variety of experiences, including what its like to be at the bottom of an All Black ruck, the secrets of the Wallabies current success, his experiences of the game in France and how to raise money for a new rugby clubhouse.
