

Swedens Regional Recipes

Take a tour through Sweden's Regional Recipes, a delightful title that describes each of Sweden's diverse provinces and the culinary specialties. The journey starts in Lapland, the land of the midnight sun, Sweden's northernmost and largest province. It winds through the others as well, from the fertile valleys of Norrbotten in the northeast to Dalarna, the heart of Sweden, to the southernmost province of Skåne, where the residents eat a feast of goose on St. Martin's Day. Enjoy arctic trout in Medelpad, blueberry tartlets in Dalarna, apple pancakes in Västmanland, pea soup in Uppland, breaded potato bites in Gästrikland, and Swedish meatballs, rye bread, and cheesecake in Småland. Try minced guinea fowl with roasted root vegetables in a chapter on foods from Nobel Awards banquets. A chapter on Swedish holidays features everything from pineapple-strawberry torte at Midsummer to cookies and candy for Christmas to crayfish parties.
