

The Great St Marys Day Out: A Chronicle of St Marys Short Story (The Chronicles of St Marys)

Everyone deserves to get away for a bit. Even the miscreants at St Marys. Astonishingly, Dr Bairstow has declared a holiday. Even more astonishingly - hes paying for it. Needless to say, there are strings attached. They have to record the 1601 performance of Hamlet, with Shakespeare himself in the role of the Ghost. It doesnt go well, of course. With Dr Bairstow and Mrs Mack turning a simple visit to a street market into a public brawl, Professor Rapson inadvertently stowing away on a vessel bound for the New World, and Shakespeare himself going up in flames, it would seem that Max, of all people, is the only one actually completing the assignment.
